

10-Day United Kingdom Itinerary

A day-by-day plan from Poppy Carla

Best time to go: May to September for the longest days, though the weather is changeable all year.

Getting around: The Tube, buses and walking in London. Trains link the major cities.

Book ahead: Tower of London, a West End show, Windsor Castle and long-distance trains.

DAY
1

Westminster

See Big Ben, Westminster Abbey and Buckingham Palace, then stroll St James's Park and finish with a classic pub dinner.

DAY
2

The Tower & the South Bank

Visit the Tower of London and Tower Bridge, eat at Borough Market, then walk the South Bank past Tate Modern to the London Eye.

DAY
3

Museums & the West End

Spend the morning at the British Museum, which has free entry. Wander Covent Garden in the afternoon and catch a West End show in the evening.

DAY
4

Windsor Day Trip

Take the train to Windsor, tour the castle and walk through the town. Return to London for dinner.

DAY
5

Greenwich & Markets

Visit Greenwich for the Royal Observatory and the park views, then browse Camden Market or Notting Hill in the afternoon.

DAY
6

Train to Edinburgh

Ride the train north (about 4.5 hours) and walk the Royal Mile to Edinburgh Castle.

DAY
7

Edinburgh Old Town & Arthur's Seat

Visit Holyrood Palace, wander the Old Town, and climb Arthur's Seat for the city view.

DAY
8

Highlands Day Tour

Join a day tour into the Scottish Highlands, often including Loch Ness and Glencoe.

DAY 9

Train to York

Travel to York (about 2.5 hours) and walk its medieval walls, the Minster and the Shambles.

DAY 10

Back to London

Return to London by train (about 2 hours) for a farewell dinner.

Opening times, ticket rules, travel times and prices change, so check each detail before you book. More guides, stays and packing lists at poppycarla.com.