

7-Day United Kingdom Itinerary

A day-by-day plan from Poppy Carla

Best time to go: May to September for the longest days, though the weather is changeable all year.

Getting around: The Tube, buses and walking in London. Trains link the major cities.

Book ahead: Tower of London, a West End show, Windsor Castle and long-distance trains.

DAY
1

Westminster

See Big Ben, Westminster Abbey and Buckingham Palace, then stroll St James's Park and finish with a classic pub dinner.

DAY
2

The Tower & the South Bank

Visit the Tower of London and Tower Bridge, eat at Borough Market, then walk the South Bank past Tate Modern to the London Eye.

DAY
3

Museums & the West End

Spend the morning at the British Museum, which has free entry. Wander Covent Garden in the afternoon and catch a West End show in the evening.

DAY
4

Windsor Day Trip

Take the train to Windsor, tour the castle and walk through the town. Return to London for dinner.

DAY
5

Greenwich & Markets

Visit Greenwich for the Royal Observatory and the park views, then browse Camden Market or Notting Hill in the afternoon.

DAY
6

Bath & Stonehenge

Join a day tour (or go by train and bus) to the Roman Baths in Bath and the prehistoric stones at Stonehenge.

DAY
7

Oxford Day Trip

Take the train to Oxford (about an hour) to see the colleges, the Bodleian Library and the covered market.

Opening times, ticket rules, travel times and prices change, so check each detail before you book. More guides, stays and packing lists at poppycarla.com.